VOLUME CVIII.--NO. 30. ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 4, 1907. PRICE 2 CENTS.

MADE FROM NATIVE ROOTS.
SAFE AND RELIABLE.

That the roots of many native plants, growing wild in our American forests, possess remarkable properties for the cure of human maladies is well proven. Even the untutored Indian had learned the curative value of some of these and taught the early settlers their uses. The Indian never liked work so he wanted his squaw to get well as soon as possible that she might do the work and let him hunt. Therefore, he dug "papoose root" for her, for that was their great remedy for female weaknesses. Dr. Pierce uses the same root—called Blue Cohosh—in his "Favorite Prescription," skillfully combined with other agents that make it more effective than any other medicine in curing all the various weaknesses and painful derangements peculiar to women.

Many afflicted women have been saved from the operating table and the surgeon's knife by the timely use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Tenderness over the lower pelvic region, with backache, spells of dizziness, faintness, bearing down pains or distress should not go unheeded. A course of "Favorite Prescription" will work marvelous benefit in all such cases, and generally effect a permanent cure if persisted in for a reasonable length of time. The "Favorite Prescription" is a harmless agent, being wholly prepared from native medicinal roots, without a drop of alcohol in its make up, whereas all other medicines, put up for sale through druggists for woman's peculiar ailments, contain large quantities of spirituous liquors, which are very harmful, especially to delicate women. "Favorite Prescription" contains neither alcohol nor harmful habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on each bottle wrapper. It is a powerful invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. For weak and sickly women, who are "worn-out," or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office, or school-room, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will prove a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving power.

For constipation, the true, scientific cure is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mild, harmless, yet sure.

HAY FEVER

MEN ARE POWERLESS
To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff and Falling Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Brights or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell Feared Burial Alive.

The probating of the will in Baltimore Saturday, of Henry R. Magruder, son of General John Magruder, of Virginia, who had lived in Rome and Florence since the civil war, shows a fear of being buried alive.

Magruder, who was 68 years old, recently in Italy. He directed will that his body be taken to the American Consul at Florence, who, after leaving the body in the church for forty-eight hours, was to cut deep into his leg and arm, insuring that he was dead. A post-mortem was to be held, after which the body was to be placed in the Allari Cemetery. For his trouble the American Consul was to receive $200.

To the Smithsonian Institution, Mr. Magruder left the gold sword and silver pitcher given his father by the States of Virginia and Maryland and his decoration from the government of Mexico and the diploma belonging thereto. By a rule of the Mexican Society, of which he was a member, his Aztec Cross is to go to the next of kin in the male line. A number of other bequests were made.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real Coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. If safe even for the youngest child. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Bride "Dead," But Very Happy.

Mrs. Hugh McConville, nee Burger, of Baltimore, the story of whose secret marriage against her parental objections and subsequent flight with her husband has been told, arrived safe in Portsmouth Friday morning, accompanied, of cousse, by her young husband.

The little bride was fairly composed when she arrived, although evidences of the excitement through which she had been had not left her. A warm reception was given the couple by the friends of the groom. A remarkably pretty little bride and a manly groom is what all who met them thought of them.

But indignation burned in the breasts of the couple as the result of the advertisement which the father of the bride published in Baltimore, to the effect that his daughter had died.

"Well, it is all over," said Mrs. McConville to her new friends "and I hope time will heal all wounds. I expect to be very happy."

Argo Red Salmon took the grand prize at the St. Louis Exposition, the only one ever given at any fair on Salmon. 15 cents a can.

Twenty-Seven Step-Children.

Although only 22 years old, Mrs. R. Kimbel, of Dubuque, Iowa, who until a few days ago was Miss Elizabeth Bischoff, has a family of 27 children and 42 grandchildren. She acquired this family by her marriage to Capt. R. Kimbel, at Kieler, Wis. The young bride, who has been famed for her beauty among upper Mississippi river men, has turned away many young wooers who came from far and near, after hearing tales of her beauty, to tell her of their love and to offer heart and hand.

While the young river men could not win the belle of the fishing fleet, Captain Kimbel, though handicapped by nearly 70 years, led her to the alter. He had three wives before he won Miss Bischoff, so it seems he knew how to woo and win. His family accumulated as he married widows with children until the latter numbered 27.

Croup can positively be stopped in 20 minutes. No vomiting—nothing to sicken or distress your child. A sweet, pleasant, and safe Syrup, called Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure, does the work and does it quickly. Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure for Croup alone, remember. It does not claim to cure a dozen ailments. It's for Croup, that's all. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Suicide of a Broker.

Howard P. Frothingham, who, while delirious from a nervous breakdown, jumped from the second story of his home, in west Seventy-seventh street, New York, Saturday, and later died from his injuries. Mr. Frothingham was one of the best known men in the financial district, of New York. He had passed his forty-fifth birthday, and was a native of New York city. He was probably the biggest and best known loan broker in the country, lending more "call" money annually than any other man or firm. His patronage was very large, and his commissions in the lending business alone are said to have amounted to more than $100,000 a year. He had lately met with reverses and despondency is supposed to have prompted suicide.

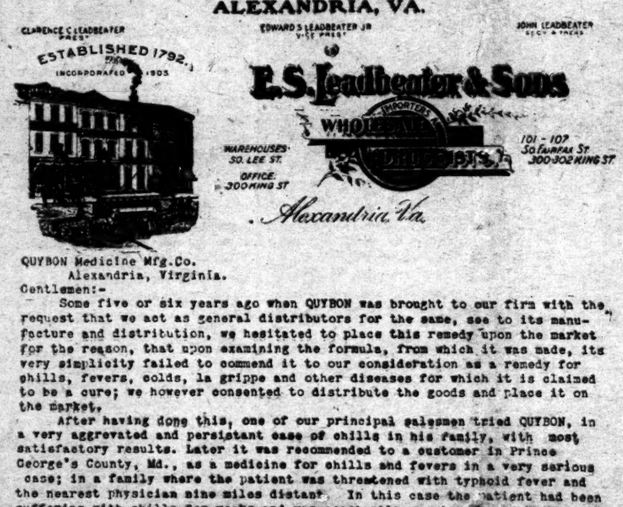
General Distributors for Quybon Medicine Mfg. Co.

ALEXANDRIA, VA.



QUYBON Medicine Mfg. Co.
Alexandria, Virginia.

Gentlemen:-

Some five or six years ago when QUYBON was brought to our firm with the request that we act as general distributors for the same, see to its manufacture and distribution, we hesitated to place this remedy upon the market for the reason, that upon examining the formula, from which it was made, its very simplicity failed to commend it to our consideration as a remedy for chills, fevers, colds, la grippe and other diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure; we however consented to distribute the goods and place it on the market,

After having done this, one of our principal salesmen tried QUYBON, in a very aggravated and persistant case of chills in his family, with most satisfactory results. Later it was recommended to a customer in Prince George's County, Md., as a medicine for chills and fevers in a very serious case; in a family where the patient was threatened with typhoid fever and the nearest physician nine miles distant. In this case the patient had been suffering with chills for weeks and was constantly growing worse. He was advised to employ a physician as his description of the case was not such as to warrant the using of a propriatory medicine, but he said that it was impossible for him to afford this expense. Then QUYBON was recommended. Three weeks later he returned to Alexandria and reported that QUYBON was given in accordance with its directions and that a complete cure was affected.

These are only two of the numerous cases that have come to our knowledge since we began to handle QUYBON. Letters full of valuable testimonials could be given if desired and cases quite as strong as the above cited but it would be a useless waste of time and space to do so. We close by saying that the medicine is used constantly in our own family and by our employees and our friends and that its sale is constantly increasing and we recommend it most highly as a medicine calculated to do all that is claimed for it.

Very respectfully,

Signed E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

MONDAY EVENING, FEB. 4 1907.

PRIVATE shipbuilding firms will find keen pleasure in a compilation made at the Navy Department which seems to settle finally in their favor the long-standing controversy as to whether war vessels can be built as cheaply by the government as by private concerns. The figures, as might have been expected, show that it costs the government much more to build vessels than it does private contractors. The comparison made is between the sister ships, the battleships Louisiana and Connecticut. The latter, built by the government at the New York navy yard, cost $409,425.28 more than the Louisiana, which was built by the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, of Newport News. The controversy over this matter has raged in the Navy Department and in Congress for many years. Finally, to settle it, Congress directed, when the construction of the Louisiana and Connecticut was authorized, that one be built at a government navy yard and the other by private contract. They were started at practically the same time, and the Louisiana was completed several months ahead of the Connecticut and, as shown by the financial statement prepared by the Navy Department, at nearly $500,000 less cost. The Louisiana, built by private contract, has received all of her official trials and has been accepted by the government. She exceeded her speed requirements and met every endurance test. Although the Connecticut has been in commission for two months, for reasons not divulged at the Navy Department, she has not been given her tests, but, after making several trips up and down the Atlantic coast, was sent to join the fleet in the Caribbean sea.

THAT Admiral Dewey is a thoughtless talker was apparent to his admirers as soon as he returned to the United States from Manila. The incidents in connection with the presentation to him of a residence in Washington will be recalled when his letters and utterances at interviews cast him into a partial eclipse. Notwithstanding the admonition of President Roosevelt that representative men of this country should cease to talk of war with Japan, the admiral, according to dispatches from Washington, has been indulging in some extravagant observations concerning what he thinks would be the result of an armed conflict between the United States and the island empire. He believes the United States navy is amply sufficent to cope with that of Japan and has no doubt that this country would emerge triumphant from the conflict. In this connection the admiral says: "We could get our navy into Eastern waters in six weeks, and within two weeks after its arrival there the Japanese navy could be swept from the face of the earth." He is also represented as saying "that if trouble is to come it would be advisable to precipitate it now rather than wait until Japan had recuperated from the Russian conflict." Now all good citizens hope the war cloud will be dissipated by diplomacy, and utterances like those credited to Admiral Dewey are to be deplored, as they are premature. Those in this country and Japan who are in positions to know whereof they speak declare there will be no trouble between the United States and the Mikado.

DESPITE THE opposition of Col. Albert Clarke, the high potentate of the Home Market Club, of Boston, the action of Gov. Curtis Guild in circulating a tariff revision petition, to be presented to President Roosevelt and Congress, is receiving much commendation among Massachusetts representatives, and the petition is being generally signed by republicans and democrats of the legislature. The petition asks the President to call an extra session of Congress, directly after the adjournment of the present Congress, to consider the broad subject of whether certain tariff schedules cannot be changed with advantage to the business interests of the entire country. Despite the assertions of the stand-patters to the contrary, the tariff reform movement is growing and will eventually win, for those behind it have justice on their side.

MR. RICHMOND PEARSON HOBSON, who did not block the harbor at Santiago, is laboring under the impression that it is incumbent upon him to keep himself before the public. These piping times of peace afford little opportunity to do sensational things, so Mr. Hobson, who has just been elected to Congress, is obliged to say them. He is now remarking that it is inevitable that this country should have war with Japan and not less certain that Japan would thrash the United States. He says "we haven't got navy enough to defend the Philippines and the Hawaiian Islands." Few American tears would be shed over the loss of either, but there is no more liklihood of Japan trying to take them than there is of her attempting to take Washington. Mr. Hobson is a jingo and an alarmist.

ACTION taken by the House committee on postoffices and postroads Saturday will further reduce the compensation to the railroads for carrying the mails $5,000,000 annually. The committee adopted the proposition made by Mr. Murdock, of Kansas, that hereafter the railroads shall be paid only for the actual amount of the mail carried, and the enormous graft permitted under former law under the lax rulings of the Postoffice Department is to be cut off entirely. This is all right and proper and no honest railroad official would object to the change.

THE campaign to save London from bankruptcy at the hands of the progressive socialist majority in the county council has now developed into the hottest political struggle in the modern history of the metropolis. The issue is solely the question of the further municipalization of local industries which threatens bankruptcy. The opposition denies that the present municipal works are profitable and it is believed that a fair showing of the accounts would prove this to be true.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, Feb. 4.

The conciliatory tone adopted by the municipal and school authorities of San Francisco just previous to their departure for Washington, is exceedingly gratifying to the administration. Mayor Schmitz is quoted as saying that if the President can show the delegation that a continuation of the present school policy in San Francisco might imperil the national interests, he will advise the school board to recede from its position. If the delegation meets the President in this friendly manner, there is no doubt that the whole difficulty will be speedily straightened out to the satisfaction of both Japan and the United States. The President has already won over the California delegation in Congress to his view of the situation. It is believed that he will be equally successful with Mayor Schmitz and the representatives of the school board. The President will not object at all to Mayor Schmitz taking upon himself the credit of saving the country from a conflict with Japan, as is intimated the Mayor would probably do should he accede to the President's wishes. It is a question whether the proposed treaty providing for reciprocal exclusion of laborers from the two countries would meet the approval of the Senate. If it should be found impossible to secure the ratification of such a treaty, the administration would probably go back to the original proposition made to Japan; namely, that that country by imperial edict shall prevent the emigration of coolies to the United States, in return for the throwing down of the bars which now exclude Japanese children from the public shools of San Francisco.

President Roosevelt is now being urged by Vice President Fairbanks, Congressman Kennedy, and a number of other prominent men to abandon his plan of visiting Columbus, Ohio to attend the fair of the Colored Educational and Agricultural Association. It is charged that the fair is nothing more nor less then a scheme to attract a crowd for gamblers to fleece and the President's advisers tell him that if he accepts the invitation of the association he will merely add to the profits of the sharks. Mr. Fairbanks was the guest of honor at the fair in Columbus last year and as soon as the crowd reached the grounds to see him the gamblers opened up their booths and cleaned up all the money that was in sight. After the gamblers got all the crowd's cash the fair was closed although it had been advertised to run several days longer. Among those who have written the President urging him to stay away from Columbus is Ralph Tyler the colored man mentioned as a likely candidate for the surveyorship of the port at Cincinnati.

The inquiry into the shooting affray at Brownsville on the night of August 13 last, which resulted in the "discharge without honor" of three companies of the colored troops of the 25th Infantry, was begun before the Senate committee on military affairs. Fourteen witnesses were present. The first called was Sergeant Israel Harris, of Company D, one of the men discharged. He is now employed as a porter in the Elliott National Bank of Boston. Senator Foraker conducted the examination. Witness gave a detailed account of the sound "to arms" and the mustering of the company. He said he had previously heard the discharge of guns. The roll call occasioned not more than 6 to 7 minutes after he was aroused from sleep. Captain Lyons, in command, placed his men along side of the wall of the barracks and they were ordered to patrol the town. While patrolling the town they found only one man who was armed. He had a Winchester and said he was an officer of the law. After the patrol the men went back to sleep and, after breakfast, were called for inspection at six o'clock. Witness further said that he was very familiar with the voices of his men and was confident that no man answered for a comrade. At the close of Harris's testimony the committee took a recess until tomorrow.

As he fell, Murphy fired once, and when on the ground twice more. Murphy was arrested and taken to jail. Harvey was taken to a hospital and his condition is critical.

DISORDERLY PROCEEDINGS.

Only the presence of the police prevented a riot at the old Barnabite Monastery, in Paris, which has been rechristened the Church of the Holy Apostiles, where the French Apostolic Catholic Church was inaugurated yesterday.

The announcement of the attempt to organize a schism had stirred up the militant Catholics, who organized a hostile reception with the intention of breaking up the services. Hand bills were distributed containing the words of a popular air, describing Archbishop Vilatte, head of the Independent Catholic movement in America, as an American monkey whom M. Briand, minister of public instruction and worship, desired to make a French pope.

Several thousand persons were outside the church and scores of others penetrated the already crowded church. Interruptions commenced as soon as Father Roussin, the pastor of the church, began his sermon welcoming the approaching Catholic independence and the dawning of the day when "all the churches of Jesus Christ will unite in Christian charity."

When he thanked Archbishop Vilate for aiding the French Catholics in establishing the first church, saying he was consecrated by the Patriarch of Antioch, the successor of St Peters, a shout in the rear of the edifice, "He is excommunicated!" was the signal for a general tumult and Father Roussin finally was compelled to ask that the police be summoned.

About 50 persons were expelled from the church and quiet was practically maintained until Archbishop Vilatte appeared on the altar in the robe and miter of an archbishop. Instantly the din began with redoubled force, almost drowning his words. Nevertheless he calmly continued, saying he had been a missionary for 36 years, but no savage tribe had ever prevented him speaking, and concluding, "Even to those who interrupt and revile me I say I will not excommunicate. I wish you no ill. God be with you. Amen."

A score or more of other persons were then ejected before Archbishop Vilatte proceeded with the celebration of pontifical mass, in which he observed the Catholic rites. During the elevation of the host, the militant Catholics, instead of kneeling, climbed into their chairs. In the meantime the police had cleared the streets outside the church and there were no demonstrations as the congregation left.

The Bishop of Brooklyn, the Rt. Rev. Charles Edward McDonnell, in thanking Brooklyn Catholics for the sympathy they extended to the French bishops and clergy at a mass meeting held last night in the Grand Opera House in New York said that he felt convinced of an amicable outcome of the war of the French government against the Catholic Church but that "the way to peace may be through blood itself."

Today's Telegraphic News

Japan's Attitude.

Tokio, Feb. 4.—Statements of officials here discredit the alarming stories from Washington and London that a conflict between Japan and the United States is threatened.

Viscount Hayashi, Minister of Foreign Affairs, said today: "The apparent cause of the war scare, if any, must be the action of the San Francisco Board of Education in segregating the Japanese pupils in the public schools. As to that I do not deny there is smothered feeling among the Japanese people against this proceeding. But the Japanese nation fully appreciates the intentions of President Roosevelt and the intelligent sympathy of by far the greater portion of the people of United States toward Japan. It trusts in the righteous character of President Roosevelt and in the American sence of fairness to solve the difficulty I know this is the sentiment of the Japanese people. There is not the slightest germ of the war spirit on this side of the ocean."

The San Francisco School Question.

San Francisco, Feb. 4.—"If we are asked by the President to sacrifice local interests for the benefit of the whole nation, we may make the concessions. If the issue is squarely put before us by the President as to what we would prefer, maintaining our present attitude on the school question and suffering from the continued influx of Japanese or abandoning our position on the school question and securing a treaty with Japanese which would stop coolie immigration, I must say I think we will decide to yield on the school issue and have coolie immigration, which presents the greatest menace to our workingmen, stopped. This is the frame of mind Mayor Schmitz was in when he and the Board of Education departed for Washington to confer with President Roosevelt on the school question. The Mayor declared that he was going to discuss the school question with the President in the most friendly spirit, and with an eye solely to the good of the whole country.

Japanese in the Hawaiian Islands.

Honolulu, Hawaii, Feb. 4. There is a steady inpouring of Japanese into the Hawaiian Islands. Nearly five hundred arrived here during the first two weeks in January, and the influx in the last two weeks has been even greater. Commercial conditions in the islands do no explain this large immigration. Many of the Japanese are men of education, and others veterans of the Japanese-Russian war. Sinister motives are hinted at by officials and the conduct of the Japanese gives foundation for the suspicion. Many of the Japanese have made no effort to secure employment. Some of the better educated have taken employment as domestics in the families of natives and Americans. Many secret societies exist among the Japanese, and it is rumored that these are really military organizations. The army veterans are the leaders of these societies. It is estimated there are fully 65,000 Japanese here, of whom 40,000 are capable of bearing arms. It is said the veterans number 15,000. Japanese formerly drilled openly. When the newspapers exploited this fact, the drills ceased. It is said the drills are still continued secretly, however.

Bishop Candler Attacks Taft.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 4.—Bishop Warren G. Candler of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, who has just returned from a pastoral visit to Cuba, says that some of the steps of the Secretary Taft in his efforts to pacify the situation put a premium on disturbances and gave to the insurrection, in the minds of some, the appearance of a profitable business. For example, he gave to each insurrectionist the horse he had stolen when he went out against the government, proposing to reimbush the original owners for the animals thus taken. "A gentlemen in Cienfuegos, told me," he says, "that he had a fine stallion on his stock farm for which he paid $500. A negro took his horse, rode it away, and now has the animal in his possession, and the original owner cannot recover his property or get an adequate payment for his loss. He sees his horse every day, but cannot touch the animal. This is only one of hundreds of similar cases where men profited by Taft's orders," said the bishop.

Fires in Chicago.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—An explosion of gasoline in a tank in the rear of the first floor of the Ferdmoler Car Company's building early today caused a fire which gutted the two-story brick structure, destroying many automobiles, several of which were to have been sent to the auto show. The loss on the building and contents will reach $100,000.

Through dense clouds of smoke fifty telephone girls groped their way out of the building of the Chicago Telephone Company last night while a stubborn fire was raging in an adjoining structure. Several of the girls were overcome and two fainted in the excitement, but none was seriously injured. The fire caused more than $100,000 damage to the six story building.

Mrs. Ella Haskell, 45 years old, was burned to death in a fire this morning, which destroyed her cottage.

Reign of Terror in Odessa.

Odessa, Feb. 4.—A fresh reign of terror prevails here and the city is in a panic. Street fighting attended by many casualties is occuring, the victims for the most part being Jews. Armed adherents of the union of the Russian people are the aggressors in the disturbances. Bands of men, heavily armed, are now parading the streets wearing cockades to distinguish them and are threatening fresh outbreaks. Hundreds of persons have fled the city in terror and many others are preparing to leave.

Blizzard Weather on the Coast.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 4.—Blizzard weather is sweeping the Atlantic coast with great suffering. All shipping at sea is in great danger. The fate of the crew is unknown.

The fisheries in Alaska have paid the government more in revenue than Alaska cost the United States. This is where the Argo Red Salmon is caught and canned.

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Feb. 4.—The crowd about the court room today when the trial of Thaw was resumed was the largest that has yet appeared. Believing the taking of evidence was to begin today brought out hundreds of persons. A large force of policemen was on hand, however, and the people were kept moving. All excuses to get in the room failed and claimants for admission were rushed away as fast as they presented themselves.

After some time had been consumed in the usual preliminaries, at 10:45 Assistant District Attorney Garvan began his opening address for the State.

At the close of his address District Attorney Jerome asked that the witnesses for both sides leave the room.

Miss May McKenzie left the room and Evelyn Nesbit Thaw went with her. As Evelyn Thaw passed her husband she took his hand and held it for a moment, then turned away with big tears trickling down each cheek. Other witnesses passed out of the room. Harry Thaw was visibly nervous and drummed on the table with his fingers.

"Lawrence White," called the court clerk. The young son of the dead architect took the stand as the first witness against the alleged murderer of his father.

Young White was followed by Robert Paxton, an engineer employed in Madison Square Garden.

Paul Brady, a fireman, on duty that night at the garden was the next witness called. The fireman testified that he saw two shots fired.

The State rested its case at 12:45 p. m.

When the court again convened Robert H. Cowboy, an attache of the garden took the stand.

Dr. Timothy Lehane, the coroner's physician, who performed the autopsy, on the dead architect was next called.

Dr. Lehane was followed by Dr. Sylvester Pechner, who was on the roof of the garden at the time of the shooting.

By 12:45 p. m. the State had completed its case. It is now up to the half a million dollar defense to undo the two hours work of the State of New York.

Delphin Michael Delmas will today, as senior counsel, take "the head of the table" in the defense of Thaw. The opening address to the jury will be made by one of the junior counsel, probably Clifford W. Hartridge.

Justice Fitzgerald admonished the jury not to talk among themselves and adjourned court until 2 o'clock for recess.

At 2 o'clock Mr. Gleason, of Thaw's counsel, began the presentation of the defense in the case to the jury.

Mine Explosion.

Cumberland, Md., Feb. 4.—Four lives are known to have been lost in a mine explosion at Thomas, W. Va., today. A number of other miners are believed to be entombed. The explosion was caused by a man running a fan, going to sleep and allowing it to stop.

Oliver's Backers.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 4.—Judging by papers of incorporation filed with the Secretary of State here today, it is believed that the company, which is to back the operations of contractor Wm. J. Oliver, of Knoxville, Tenn., in constructing the Panama canal, should President Roosevelt decide to have the contract awarded to him, will not only be backed by the present state superintendent of public works, Frederick C. Stevens, but also by the millions of Thomas Fortune Ryan, of New York and Washington. The names of neither Mr. Ryan nor Mr. Stevens appear in the papers of incorporation, as filed. The company is obliged to carry out "such contracts as are awarded to it by the United States government." The directors are: John B. MacDonald, John Pierce, George F. Harriman, New York; W. J. Oliver, Knoxville; Patrick J. Brennan, Washington, D. C.; George Pierce, Frankfort, Maine; Patrick Walsh, Davenport, Iowa, and Robt. Russell Lynchburg, Va. Each of the above directors subscribe to $50,000 worth of the copital stock.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 4.—After a weak opening, following the lead of sharp declines in London, the stock market steadied and a large part of the early losses were recovered before the end of the first hour. The importance of the Japanese discussion as a market factor, is generally understood to have lost its influence and no attention was paid to the press reports of the developments in regard to the Japanese question.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, Feb. 4.

SENATE.

Two memorials from state legislatures were read in the Senate today. One from Minnesota urged the removal of the duty on lumber, because of the grinding monopoly of the lumber trust. The other, from Oregon, wants the duty on jute and jute fabrics removed.

Mr. Nelson forced the consideration of the administration's measure giving the government the right of appeal in certain phases of criminal cases. The bill has already passed the House.

Mr. Hale, in denouncing the measure, said he could not expect to arrest its progress but he wished to file a protest on the ground that there was no necessity for changing the fundamental principle that no man should be twice put in jeopardy. "The tendency of the times seems to be the taking away of rights from the individual and giving them to the government," he exclaimed.

HOUSE.

The House passed the McCumber service pension bill by a vote of 196 to 20. It provides for pensions for veterans over 62 years at $12 per month; over 70 years at $15; 75 years or over at $20.

The House agreed to the resolutions for the Department of Commerce and Labor to investigate the cotton exchange dealings in futures and for an investigation of the patents taken out by officers of the United States army and navy for the purposes of seeing to what extent the United States is given an opportunity to profit thereby.

DIED.

OBITUARY.

Died, at her home on Wolfe street, at 9:15 o'clock Sunday night, MARY LAWS, aged 55 years. For a period of forty years she had been a faithful and loving nurse. About three weeks ago she was compelled by declining health to relinquish her charge. Rapidly she failed and passing away leaves to us the memory of a life full of devotion and unselfishness. Many who experienced her tender care are grown men and women. These, as well as the little ones who feel her recent loss, will ever keep her memory green.

Crossed the last dim river—ended now the way,
Faithful in life's winter and singing in its May;
Love that still was loyal, love that nothing craves,
Hands that rocked life's cradle and wreath'd with flowers its graves,
Toiling ever faithful, by those hands caressed,
Childhood left its playthings, climbing to her breast,
And the old sweet songs she sang in twilight shadows deep—
Sing us all to sleep "Mamie," sing us all to sleep.

Death of George W. Denham.

George W. Denham, an old time actor, who was well known throughout the country, fell dead in front of 103 east Nineteenth street, New York, Saturday afternoon, as the result of a stroke of apoplexy. He was 61 years of age. The deceased went on the stage forty years ago. Denham was an actor of no mean ability, and during his long career he played with some of the most prominent actors in the country, and was always looked upon as one of the best supporters for stars in the profession. Denham for the few years prior to his death was said to be worth more than half a million of dollars. During recent years he lived in a summer resort at Four-mile run, and was well known in Alexandria, which city he often visited. His residence was destroyed by fire several years ago.

NO LIKELIHOOD OF WAR.

The telegrams from London reporting newspaper talk of a possible war between Japan and the United States, and that Viscount Aoki, Japanese Ambassador at Washington, had handed Secretary of State Root an ultimatum, are received in Tokio with laughter. Viscount Hayashi, minister of foreign affairs, in response to an inquiry gave out the following:

"I will see you in the morning. I will say that Japan has not the slightest idea of going to war with the United States."

The entire absence of warlike feeling in Japan is explained by Baron Kaneko, formerly special envoy to the United States, who said:

"The Japanese understand America better than the Americans understand Japan. A great majority of the men holding public positions were educated by American instructors and have long studied American institutions. Now, through the press and otherwise, they are helping the people to appreciate the difficulty the federal goverment has in controlling the action of the individual states. Hence, after the first phase of the segregation question, the people gained confidence in the sympathy which a great majority of the Americans still have toward Japan. Bushido, Japan's moral system, insists that a finger shall never be raised against a benefactor. Japan owes her position among the powers to America. In the event of the most unfavorable outcome of the questions pending between Japan and the United States the former's national existence would not be threatened.

"In the matter of the Chinese and Russian wars conditions were different. Even then Japan yielded point after point, in order to avoid war. Those governments she knew were hostile. The American government and people, with England, are Japan's best friends. War is unthinkable."

Hon. Tokiwo Yokoi, chairman of the committee on petitions of the lower house of the Diet, who holds the most confidential relations with the Prime Minister and Marquis Ito, president of the Privy Council, says:

"Marquis Ito said last week that not even excepting the late war with Russia, the greatest modern achievement of Japan was securing a revision of treaties that resulted in the admittance of Japan among the civilized powers. It was not likely that another nation not Christian was ever so admitted. American and English sympathies had enabled this." Continuing M. Yokoi said:

"War with America would destroy the Anglo-Japanese alliance, and Germany would step in, intriguing for a Far Eastern position. Japan would be completely isolated. She realizes that America and England are her sureties among the powers. If Great Britain could not afford to remain isolated, it would be suicidal for Japanese statesmen to endanger Japan's alliance with her or to alienate American sympathy."

County Notes.

A committee composed of W. S. Hoge, M. E. Church and E. W. Stearns appeared Saturday before the supervisors of Alexandria county, and urged an appropriation for an exhibit at the Jamestown exposition. The matter was taken under consideration by the supervisors and a committee was appointed to investigate.

The clerk was directed to communicate with the Jamestown officials and get them to reserve space for the county's exhibit.

A committee composed of members of the board of trade requested the supervisors to have certain streets at Rosslyn, in that county, paved with Belgian block. The supervisors decided that the county would pay for half of the work, provided those who were interested will assume the other half.

A committee was appointed to view a roadway from the Leesburg road to the Mushpot road, opposite Mr. John H. Goings' place, for the purpose of opening up a new road in that vicinity.

The report submitted by the accountant employed by the board was adopted, and was ordered to be published.

Robert Scott Hume and William A. E. McShea were elected school trustees for Jefferson and Arlington districts, respectively, at a meeting of the school board of Alexandria county Saturday.

Senator Martin as Floor Leader.

A Washington correspondent to the Louisville Courier Journal says:

Senator Martin, of Virginia, may succeed Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, as floor leader of the minority after March 4th, when the term of the latter expires. The question of the caucus chairmanship is exciting no little interest in democratic circles. There are half a dozen receptive candidates—Senators Bacon, of Georgia; Culberson, of Texas, and Tillman, of South Carolina, among them. In fact, nearly every democrat in the Senate has been mentioned for the position but several senators have expressed the opinion that the Virginia Senator would be about the best leader the minority could decide upon.

Senator Martin is not much on speechmaking, but for accomplishing things he is a wonder. As the leader his voice would rarely be heard in debate, but, on the other hand, he would always know what is going on and could be depended upon to make few mistakes, if any. He is generally regarded as the best politician on the democratic side and has a long term of service on the democratic national committee.

Howard Gould and a party of New York friends had a narrow escape from death off Old Point Comfort, last night, when Mr. Gould's private yacht Niagara, was run into but not much damaged by the three-masted schooner Harbeson Hickman.

House Eulogizes Gorman.

The business of the House was laid aside Saturday evening in order that the members might pay fitting tribute to the memory of the late Senator Gorman. Representative Talbott, of Maryland, was the first speaker, and he was followed by Speaker Cannon. The tribute of the Speaker to Mr. Gorman was warm and heartfelt. He said that in his opinion Mr. Gorman had contributed to the progress of the republic and of civilization as he was given the light, and he thought a man who could make this declaration as he passed over after a public life should regard himself fortunate. Speaking of his legislative work the Speaker remarked.

"Senator Gorman as a debater was strong and forceful and clear, but in my judgment, his ability, his tact, his industry and his knowledge in the conference room touching daily transactions in legislation were, to say the least of it, equal to his ability as a debater in the Senate of the United States. Sometimes it is fashionable in this country, if we cannot think of anything else to say, to cartoon or to put a humorous little bit in the newspapers, if they need a stickful, sometimes a fling with or without malice, as it may be, at the Congress of the United States. We are not all Solomons in either the House or the Senate, nor are we all Websters, nor are we all Gormans."

Mr. Champ Clark speaking of the campaign of 1888, vouchsafed it as his opinion that had Senator Gorman been chairman of the national democratic committee in that year Cleveland would have been re-elected, "and the current of our history changed for years, it may be forever." Referring to the Cleveland-Gorman feud Mr. Clark said that it was not for him to say upon whom rested the blame, but he regarded it as the turning point in the politics of the country.

In the course of his remarks on the life of Senator Gorman, Mr. Towne of New York, took occasion to pay his compliments to the "muck raker." "The function of the 'muck raker,'" said Mr. Towne, "is not that of criticism at all. It is frankly one of pessimism, of spite, of hatred, of elemental, savage, indiscriminate cruelty."

Other eulogies were delivered by Messrs. Livingston of Georgia, Smith of Missouri, Clayton of Alabama, Byrd of Mississippi, Goulden of New York and Gill of Maryland.

The Gordonsville Mystery.

Hurricane Branch has returned to Suffolk with his bloodhounds after having spent two days in Orange county searching for the men who entered the homes of four families in Gordensville and chloroformed three young women, though no criminal assault was attempted. Branch says he believes that five or six white men are the guilty persons. He could get no trace of them on account of the fact that their tracks had been covered by snow and ice.

Chloroform was used at the bedside of the Misses Bowers, of the Woodlawn Seminary, while they were asleep in the home of the Rev. F. A. Meade, and at the bedside of Misses Annie and Lottie Davenport in the home of Edward Davenport.

It is reported that Miss Lottie Davenport was completely under the influence of the drug when her sister tried to awaken her. She was resuscitated yesterday and is now out of danger.

No attempt was made to assault the women, although it was at first reported that four women had been attacked by the men. No arrests have as yet been made, and the case remains a mystery so far as the description and capture of the guilty person is concerned. It is not known whether the intruders were white men or negroes.

Our Annual February Sale of Fancy and Odd Furniture

This Monday we inaugurate our Fourth Annual February Furniture Sale, at which time we shall offer a representative collection of high-grade goods from the foremost manufacturers, at prices ranging from 25 to 50 Per Cent. Below Actual Value.

The variety is larger and more comprehensive than any we have ever assembled.

Our buyer spent several weeks in the late fall visiting the leading factories in the North, East, West, and South—factories whose names stand for all that is best in furniture—securing their productions. As a result several carloads are already here and more are coming. And, besides large quantities of goods gathered especially for this sale, we shall add the one-of-a-kind pieces of our own splendid stock at reduced prices. And notwithstanding the goods are offered at a quarter to a half less than the usual prices, the construction and finish are unsurpassed and thoroughly reliable in every particular.

And by going direct to the factories and making our own selections we not only secured goods at the lowest prices, but also secured various lots, representing all the makers had of this or that particular kind together with sample pieces, at very decisive price-concessions.

This sale includes Furniture for all parts of the house except the kitchen—Dressers' Chiffoniers, Toilet Tables, Cheval Glasses, Washstands, Beds, Dining and Bed Room Chairs, Oak Rockers, Gold and Mahogany Parlor Cabinets, Gilt Chairs, Vernis Martin Tables, Clocks, Weathered Oak Chairs, Weathered Oak Rockers, Weathered Oak Settees, Weathered Oak Desks, Golden Oak Desks, Leather Chairs, Morris Chairs, Parlor Suites, China Closets, Buffets, Sideboards, Dining Tables, Couches, Davenports, Sofas, Office Tables, Office Chairs, Bookcases, &c., &c.

It affords and opportunity to housekeepers to add pretty and odd pieces of furniture to the home at a small expenditure, and enables proprietors of hotels and boarding-house to secure what may be needed in the furniture line, in the latest effects, at a great saving.

These goods will be conveniently displayed on our sixth floor, with both regular and sale prices plainly marked, and may be distinguished from our regular stock by having a yellow price tag attached. The goods are now ready for your examination and selection.

The sale will continue throughout the month.

Airships Mean Ruin to England.

Prof. Rudolf Martin, of Berlin, who gained fame by his book on the future of Russia, now prophesies the overthrow of Great Britain's world supremacy by the solution of aerial navigation.

He elaborates his theory on this point in a new book of fascinating interest which will be published shortly under the title "From Berlin to Bagdad; the German World Supremacy in the Coming Era of Aerial Navigation. "The professor declares that aerial navigation will deprive Great Britain of her insular isolation. When airships can travel from the Continent to Great Britain as easily as and far more rapidly than trains now move from one point to another Great Britain will cease to obtain the strategic advantage of her geographical position. Airships, he says, will rob Britian of the tremendous gain now accruing from the ocean beating on her shores. At the same time the value of the Himalayas as a natural defense to India will be utterly destroyed.

Moreover, when aerial navigation becomes general, as will be the case within a few years, the Britain navy will be reduced to comparative insignificance. The contest for the supremacy of the world will begin over again, and this struggle for a predominating position will be fought out in the air.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure contains have had a warning printed on them against Opium and narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Wife Suspected of Murder.

Old Abraham Seaman was found dead in his bed in Newburg, N. Y., Saturday morning, with a bullet wound in his heart, and his wife was committed to the Duchess county jail at Poughkeepsie on a charge of having murdered him.

Mrs. Seaman is a comely woman of 40, with a daughter 19, who is married to a man named Pendleton, at Matteawan.

Seaman lived with his wife in Mill street, Matteawan, and, according to all accounts, none too happily. The 29 years' difference in their ages seems to have been a discordant element in their lives. Neighbors informed the authorities of visitors at the Seaman home who, they were sure, had not been welcome to the head of the house.

Mrs. Seaman was Nellie Hills and only 20 when she married. She was a country schoolteacher in the mountains near Liberty, and the story goes that she took Seaman to pique a young swain who had offended her. She believed him to be a farmer with a competence, but he had never had more than his daily toil brought him in the employ of others.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists.

The Alaska Packers Association furnish the government hundreds of thousands of cases of Salmon a year, Out of 240,000 cans examined by the goverment at Camp Thomas only four defective cans were found. This firm packs the Argo Red Salmon.

Endorsed by the County.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego county, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price 50c and $1.
